

ABSOLUT ART.

LISA YUSKAVAGE. Absolut Yuskavage, 1995, pastel on paper, 50 x 38 cm

Dan WOLGERS Born in Stockholm, Sweden, in 1955. Using the Dadaist technique of assemblage, Wolgers integrates existing artworks into his own. For Absolut Wolgers he used Marcel Duchamp's Bottle Rack, one of the most important icons of modern art, and restored it to its original function. Lives and works in Stockholm. PAGE 108

Ron WOOD Born in Hillington, United Kingdom, in 1947. Guitarist, composer, singer, and songwriter, Wood played with The Thunderbirds, Jeff Beck, Rod Stewart, The Faces, and The Small Faces. He has been a member of The Rolling Stones since 1975. Wood is also a painter and draftsman. He has painted portraits of his fellow musicians, Mick Jagger, Keith Richards, Eric Clapton, and Marvin Gaye. For Absolut he painted a self-portrait. PAGE 122

Marcia YERMAN Born in New York, USA, in 1954. Studied at the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts. Her oil paintings, filled with personal iconography, are both narrative and symbolic. In her work, formal elements coexist with primitive and psychological mysteries. The use of bold, vibrant color is an integral part of her style. Lives and works in New York. PAGE 48

Lisa YUSKAVAGE Born in New York, USA, in 1963. Received an MFA from Yale University. Her signature works are paintings portraying grotesque young sexpots with bloated stomachs, in which she explores the tricks women use to negotiate for power. Her work for Absolut, however, is a seductive still life, but like most of her work, it incorporates lush, saturated colors. Lives and works in New York. PAGE 156

Per ZENNSTRÖM. Born in Stockholm, Sweden, in 1961. A fashion and commercial photographer, Zennström started his career as assistant to many European and American photographers, including Steven Meisel. He describes his images as "both strong and elegant." Lives and works in Paris. PAGE 146
